Dear Enrique,

As you requested, attached is an expanded timeline for the entire site, with additions that David made today. Thank you David!

I will soon send a revised presentation and supplemental Q&A's with changes requested yesterday.

Also, now that I've stared at the media advisory more and listened to Sup. Cohen's NBC interview, I think it may be more likely that the topic would be the 49 vs 97% estimates. Nevertheless I'll still draft some material for potential "path forward" questions. Stay tuned . . .

And again, call me any time. It's better to sort through things now vs. Mon morning.

Lily
